

GERMAN STUDIES CONCENTRATION (6 credits)

German Studies Concentration

The German Studies Concentration provides a multidisciplinary approach to the study of German culture, literature, politics and social issues. The Concentration requires a total of six credit units. Students that want to complete the concentration must take three core courses in the Modern Languages Department: German 201, 202, and 301 or 311. After the three required courses, students will need to complete three electives taken from a different department. See the list below.

Course	3 Credits	Credits
GRMN 201	German Intermediate I	1
GRMN 202	German Intermediate II	1
German 301 or German 311	German Composition & Conversation German Civilization & Culture	1 1
Course	3 Electives
History/Religion 246	Holocaust
History 231/ Religion 212	Reformation	1
History 320	Middle Ages	1
History 325	Renaissance & Reformation	1
History 330	Early Modern History	1
History 340	Modern European History	1
Art History 291	Special Topics	1
Art History 343	Early Netherlandish Painting	1
Art History 353	Dutch Golden Age	1
I.R. 221/ POLI 221	Comparative Political Systems: Europe	1
I.R. 261	Special Topics	1
Religion 284	Luther & Legacy	1
Leipzig Program		1
INQ 270/271 or HNRS courses or IL		1