

Theology Concentration Checklist
A concentration in Theology requires the completion of six units:
At least 4 units chosen from below. Topics courses and independent studies in RELG may be counted as appropriate with the approval of the department. Relevant courses offered by other programs or under INQ may be counted with the approval of the department.
	DONE	PLANNED
RELG 102 Introduction to Christian Theology
RELG 201 Israelite Patriarchs...
RELG 202 New Testament...
RELG 210 Early Christian Conflicts
RELG 212 Reformation
RELG 216 Pauline Christianity
RELG 220 Christian Ethics
RELG 225 Religious Life Young Adults
RELG 231 Religion/Phil/Science
RELG 246 Holocaust
RELG 282 Augustine & His Legacy
RELG 284 Luther & His Legacy
RELG 286 Legacy of Modern Theology
RELG 317 Systematic Theology
RELG 340 Contemporary Christian Studies
PHIL 251 or 253
Up to 2 units of ancient languages may be taken for the concentration:
Greek, Latin, Hebrew
Greek, Latin, Hebrew		